

Preparedness Best Practices

40ns*

...about the time needed to realize you have no emergency plan or preparations in place and may be in serious trouble.

Having taken the time to plan ahead – mentally and physically - for likely emergencies – and how you would respond - will prove invaluable when such an emergency arises.

* We made this up but you get the point!

